

University of London

Master of Laws (LLM) degree, Postgraduate Diploma in Laws and Postgraduate Certificate in Laws

Regulations Supplement: August 2010

Launch of new course

In addition to the courses listed as available for study in the 2010 Master of Laws (LLM) degree, Postgraduate Diploma in Laws and Postgraduate Certificate in Laws Regulations, students should note that the course listed below will have its first examination in October 2010.

- International and comparative law of patents, trade secrets and related rights [91 501 027A/B/C/D]

Students should also note the following course listed below will have its first examination in May 2011.

- Commercial banking law: bank customer relationship [91 501 072A/B/C/D]
Study materials available from August/September 2010.

Students are advised not to sit examinations for any sections in which they have had access to the materials for less than six months.